

The Whitten Group, P.A.
www.thewhittengroup.com

Amy D. Whitten, JD

A seasoned trial attorney, law professor, government leader, and organizational consultant, Amy Whitten has devoted her life to law and the development of highly successful people and systems. As an Assistant Attorney General, she prosecuted the state's capital docket, the first woman to serve in this role.

A veteran executive manager in both the private and public sectors, Ms. Whitten has also served the State of Mississippi as Counsel and Court Administrator to the Mississippi Supreme Court. Her current private legal practice focuses primarily on employment and government law issues.

Mississippi's Woman Lawyer of the Year in 2000, Ms. Whitten has also received the prestigious Stennis Award for Excellence in State Government, the Governor's "Power of One" Award and the Mississippi Bar Award of merit for her role in reforming Mississippi's court system. She currently sits as a Trustee on the Mississippi Board of Institutions of Higher Learning, the state body that oversees Mississippi's eight public universities and their 65,000 students. A veteran trainer, Ms. Whitten has authored a number of publications, including A Guide to Government, the manual used to train Mississippi's public sector managers.

A dynamic public speaker, Ms. Whitten is highly sought after as a motivational speaker on varied topics relating to leadership, service, and personal development. She practices and partners with a vast array of organizations.

